

The Olympic Pole Vaulter

Vintage Lithograph • LeRoy Neiman
Made for 1984 Los Angeles XXIII

NOW AVAILABLE AT RETAIL FOR THE FIRST TIME

Collectible Points of Interest:

- ♦ Leroy Neiman (1921-2012) was the official artist of five Olympiads and was one of the most collected artists of the 20th century.
- ♦ Neiman produced this museum quality, limited edition lithograph to be released concurrent with the 1984 Los Angeles Summer Olympic Games.
- ♦ Two months prior to the commencement of the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics during the Cold War era, the USSR withdrew from the competition.
- ♦ The USSR flag prominently displayed in The Olympic Pole Vaulter was deemed a historical anomaly. The prints were placed in permanent storage.
- ♦ Never released, these prints have been kept and preserved for over 30 years. Until now.
- ♦ This collectible, unique lithograph is a wonderful example of Leroy Neiman's iconic style. Its unique historical and commemorative value adds intrigue to its visual appeal.
- ♦ The vintage flare of these prints is highly admired in today's décor market. Additionally, these prints have broad appeal in the Olympic memorabilia market.

18"x 25.5"

MUSEUM
QUALITY PRINT

